

ARTICLE 10.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW AND ATTORNEYS IN FACT.

Admission to the Bar.

1. Attorneys at law must be admitted. Who is an attorney?
2. Application for admission to the bar to be made to the court of appeals. State board of law examiners.
- 3-3A. Educational requirements for.
4. Examination of applicants under 21 years old
5. Women may practise law.
6. Admission without examination of lawyers from other states. To whom not applicable.
7. Certificate from court of appeals.

Free Inspection of Records by Practitioners.

8. Practitioners entitled to free inspection of records. Clerks and registers to afford immediate access to records.

Oath of Attorneys at Law.

9. Form of oath.

Misconduct of Attorneys—Negligence—Disbarment—Suspension.

10. Punishments for misconduct.
11. Disbarment by circuit courts or supreme bench of Baltimore city shall extend to orphans' court.
12. Duty of orphans' court to bring charges for professional misconduct.
13. Negligence resulting in discontinuance.
14. Improper solicitations of chantage. Penalty.
15. Costs for negligence.

Who May Not Practise Law.

16. Who may not be admitted to practise law.
17. Register of wills and clerks and deputies may not practise while holding office.
18. Nor judges.

Practising Without Being Admitted to the Bar.

19. No person shall practise for compensation without being admitted to the bar. Penalty.
20. False representation as to being an attorney.

State's Attorney.

21. To represent the state.
22. To order execution for penalties.
23. May compromise cases of assault.
24. To aid comptroller and treasurer.
25. Accounts for fees. Not applicable to Allegany, Anne Arundel and Garrett counties.
26. Comptroller may adjust fees of.
27. Ad interim appointment of.
28. When to enter judgment to use of surety.

Attorneys in Fact.

29. When acts valid after death of principal.
30. Power of attorney to execute deed.

As to appearance fees, see art. 36, sec. 10.

Cases of attorneys who are members of the legislature, which come up for trial during the session of the legislature, may be continued—art. 75, sec. 75.