

Admission to the Bar.

An. Code, sec. 1. 1904, sec. 1. 1888, sec. 1. 1715, ch. 48. 1783, ch. 17. 1831, ch. 268.
1908, ch. 638. 1910, ch. 608 (p. 6).

1. No person shall practice the profession or perform the services of an attorney at law within this State without being admitted to the bar as hereinafter directed; and any person who shall give legal advice, represent any person in the trial of any case at law or in equity or prepare any written instrument affecting the title to real estate, for pay or reward, shall be deemed an attorney at law for purposes of this Article; provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to Carroll County and Worcester County, Garrett County, so far as it relates to the preparation of written instruments affecting the title to real estate for pay or reward.

Cited but not construed In Re Taylor, 48 Md. 30.

An. Code, sec. 2. 1904, sec. 2. 1888, sec. 2. 1898, ch. 139.

2. All applications for admission to the bar in this State shall be made by petition to the court of appeals. A State board of law examiners is hereby created, to consist of three members of the bar of at least ten years' standing, who shall be appointed by the court of appeals, and shall hold office for the term of three years. Said examiners shall hold office for one, two and three years, respectively, to be designated by the judges of the court of appeals. After the first appointment the court of appeals shall annually appoint a member of said board in the place of the examiner whose term shall expire. Members of said board shall be eligible to re-appointment. In case of any vacancy in said board by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the court of appeals shall fill said vacancy by the appointment of a member of said board to serve until the expiration of the term for which the person so dying or resigning had been appointed.

For cases now apparently inapplicable to this section by reason of changes in the law, see In Re Taylor, 48 Md. 31; State v. Johnston, 2 H. & McH. 163.

1916, ch. 509, sec. 3. 1918, ch. 426, sec. 3.

3.<sup>1</sup> Any person in this State desiring to begin the study of law for the purpose of admission to the Bar shall first file with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals an application for registration as a law student, and at the same time shall file therewith a certificate showing that he has completed a course of study at some university, college, high school or other school substantially equivalent to a high school education in Maryland; said university, college, high or other school to be approved by the State Board of Law Examiners; and if he has not completed such course of study, he shall submit to an examination, to be held under the supervision of the State Board of Law Examiners, in such subjects as may be prescribed by the rules of the Court of Appeals, in order to show that his education is substantially equivalent to a high school education in Maryland; if the said Board shall

<sup>1</sup> Both the act of 1918, ch. 426, and the act of 1918, ch. 270, repealed and re-enacted art. 10, sec. 3. Although the former was approved on April 18, 1918, and the latter on April 10, 1918, in view of the decision of the Court of Appeals of Maryland in Baltimore v. German-American Fire Insurance Company, 132 Md. 380, both acts are codified.
