

An. Code, sec. 59B. 1916, ch. 367, sec. 59B.

76. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding Section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace in either of said Counties, shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense; and in default of payment of fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with the costs, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offense; one-half of all fine or fines to go to the informer.

Wild Fowl on Patuxent and Tributaries.

An. Code, sec. 60. 1904, sec. 51. 1904, ch. 509, sec. 1. 1906, ch. 471½, sec. 1. 1914, ch. 314.

77.¹ It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland to hunt, shoot or trap within the State, upon the waters of the Patuxent river, its tributaries, or marshes of said river or tributaries, any wild goose, wild duck, snipe or ortolan, reed-bird or birds or wild fowl of any description, at any season of the year, unless such non-resident person shall have first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court of one of the counties bordering on said river a license permitting such person named in said license to hunt, shoot or trap the said birds and wild fowl upon the waters of the said river, its tributaries, or marshes of said river or tributaries; and the said license so obtained shall be limited, said limitation to be stated in said license to the open season for shooting the aforesaid birds and wild fowl, shall not be transferrable, under penalty of forfeiture of the same and a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, and shall expire one year from the date of its issue. Any person desiring such license shall apply for same in person to said clerk of the court, and shall pay therefor the sum of ten dollars, which amount shall be paid by the said clerk to the board of county school commissioners of said county in which the said license was issued, for the use of the public schools thereof, and, in addition thereto, such persons securing said license shall pay to the said clerk the sum of one dollar as a fee for issuing said license; said clerk shall prepare and keep a book, substantially bound, of such blank license, with stub thereto, and when such license is issued by him a full memorandum thereof shall be entered on the stub of such license, which stub shall remain in said book, and be a public record of said office; and before such license shall be delivered to the applicant therefor, such applicant shall write his name and address both on said license and on said stub. Any non-resident who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof in the circuit court or before any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland in and for any of the counties bordering on said river, shall be fined five dollars for each wild goose, wild duck, snipe, ortolan or reed-bird, or other birds or wild fowls so shot or ¹ While act of 1914, ch. 314, repeals act of 1906, ch. 471½—erroneously called in title to said act ch. 471½ of act of 1910—no reference is made to act of 1904, ch. 509, and hence it would seem that latter act has not been expressly repealed and accordingly it is codified. It may be that if the question should arise, the courts would hold that this section is impliedly repealed by act of 1914, ch. 315.
