

of this section shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every wild goose, wild duck, ortolan, rail or reedbird killed by him or found in his possession; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, if any, and the remainder of ¹ the whole, as the case may be, to the board of county school commissioners of the county in which the trial is had, for the use of the public schools thereof, after deducting all cost incident to said trial and conviction; and on failure to pay such fine, such offender shall be committed by the court or justice of the peace who imposed said fine to the county jail of the county in which such conviction was held, for not more than ten days.

An. Code, sec. 63A. 1914, ch. 315.

80A.² It shall not be lawful for any person whether resident or non-resident of the State of Maryland, to shoot or trap any wild goose or wild duck on the Patuxent River, its tributaries or its marshes between the fifteenth day of March and the thirty-first day of October following, both days inclusive, in each and every year, or any ortolan, rail or reed bird between the first day of December and the thirty-first day of August, both days inclusive, in each and every year, or to have in his possession in any of the Counties bordering on said river any of the above named birds or wild fowl during the closed season for the same respectively provided by this Section. And any person convicted in the Circuit Court or before any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland in and for any of the Counties bordering on said river of a violation of this Section, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every wild goose, wild duck, ortolan, rail or reed bird killed by him or found in his possession, one-half of said fine to be paid the informer, if any, and the remainder or the whole, as the case may be, to the Board of County School Commissioners of the County in which the trial is had, for the use and benefit of the public schools thereof, after deducting all cost incident to such trial and conviction; and on the failure to pay such fine, such offender shall be committed by the Court, or justice of the peace who imposed said fine to the County jail of the County in which such conviction was had for ten days.

An. Code, sec. 64. 1904, sec. 55. 1904, ch. 509, sec. 5. 1906, ch. 471½, sec. 5. 1914, ch. 314.

81.³ No person, unless a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland, shall shoot or trap upon the waters of the Patuxent river or any of its tributaries, or any of the marshes of said river or tributaries, any wild goose, wild duck, snipe, ortolan, reedbird or other birds or wild fowl without the written permission of the owner of the land adjacent to such waters or marshes; said right or permission to extend to and embrace such portions of said waters and marshes as lie between the lands of the adjacent proprietor and the middle thread of the main channel of said river, upon extending the river frontage of such proprietor at right angles with the course of said main channel to the thread thereof, under a fine of not less than five dollars or more than twenty-five dollars for each violation of this section, and the cost of any proceeding to enforce the same, which

¹ Evidently a typographical error in the act.

² See footnote to sec. 77A.

³ See footnote to sec. 77.