

residents of the State of Maryland in the meaning of this section; provided, however, that in addition to the above requirements the secretary of said club shall file with the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein said club may be located a certified list of the membership of said club on or before the first day of September of each year; and there shall be posted at the same time in a conspicuous place on the premises of said club a certified list of its members and their place of residence; provided, further, that if there shall be issued to any person a membership card other than a bona fide member of said club by the president and secretary as above prescribed, or if any club member shall transfer his membership card to any person not a member of said club, the license issued as aforesaid to said club license shall become forfeited, and said club so violating this provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, in addition to the forfeiture of the license aforesaid, shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty, nor more than one hundred dollars; and said fine shall be collected as other debts are collected before a justice of the peace, one-half of said fine to be paid to the county commissioners of the county wherein said club is located for the use of the public roads thereof, and the other half to the informer; and service upon the keeper of said club, or any one in charge of the same or any member of said club shall be deemed service upon said club for the purpose of this section, for the appearance of said club to answer said charge and for the imposition of the penalty prescribed by this section if in the judgment of the justice of the peace the provisions of this section imposing the forfeiture and penalty have been violated; and provided further, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to allow or permit said club members to push one another or any other person or persons with the purpose of hunting, shooting or trapping upon the waters of the Patuxent river, its tributaries or marshes of said river or tributaries, any wild goose, wild duck, snipe or ortolan, reed bird or birds, or wild fowl of any kind at any season of the year, or to conflict in any way with the provisions of section 3 of chapter 471½ of the Acts of 1906.

The act of 1908, ch. 574, was not repealed by act of 1914, ch. 314. It may be that if the question should arise, the courts would hold that this section is impliedly repealed by act of 1914, ch. 315.

See sec. 77, et seq.

An. Code, sec. 67. 1914, ch. 315.

83.¹ All bona fide members of any hunting club incorporated and organized on or before the first day of January, 1912, under the laws of the State of Maryland, and owning or leasing real estate therein within one mile of the Patuxent River and improved by a clubhouse and the membership of which does not exceed thirty, shall be considered bona fide residents of the State of Maryland within the meaning and intention of the Act, provided, that such member exhibit, when demanded by an author

¹ Apparently the act of 1914, ch. 315, was intended as a substitute for secs. 77 to 82, but in view of the situation explained in the footnote to those sections, and of the fact that the editor does not attempt to determine when statutes are impliedly repealed, that being a question for the courts, both secs. 77 to 82 (as they remain after the act of 1914, ch. 314) and the act of 1914, ch. 315, are codified.
