

hunt, pursue and kill said enumerated birds and animals, during the open season for the same, on the said farm lands of which he or they are the bona fide owners, children of such owners, or tenants, or children of such tenants.

An. Code, sec. 78. 1918, ch. 468, sec. 70. 1920, ch. 720, sec. 70.

101. The Clerks of the Circuit Courts of the counties and the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City shall, on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter, transmit to the Comptroller of this State all moneys received by them for licenses; the said amounts so received by the Comptroller shall be placed to the credit of a separate fund to be known as "The State Game Protection Fund," and shall be disbursed by the said State Comptroller from time to time, on warrants signed by the Conservation Commissioner of Maryland. The moneys in said fund shall be used solely for the salaries and expenses of the State Game Warden and his subordinates, and for the protection and propagation of birds and game of all kinds. Out of the said fund the State Game Warden shall pay the sum of fifty cents for each head of a bird-hawk or chicken-hawk actually killed in this State, to the person producing satisfactory proof of having killed said hawk within this State. The said Commissioner shall require the State Game Warden to file an annual account with him showing the entire receipts and disbursements of himself and all deputies, and exhibit vouchers therefor, and also shall require said State Game Warden to file an approved bond in the penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the faithful performance of his duties, the cost of said bond to be paid out of said fund.

An. Code, sec. 79. 1918, ch. 468, sec. 71. 1920, ch. 720, sec. 71. 1922, ch. 549, sec. 71.

102. Any person found guilty of hunting, pursuing or killing of any of the birds or animals referred to in this Act¹ without having a license, except as herein provided or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the State Game Warden or any Deputy or Local Game Warden, Sheriff, Constable or other officer or person, or failing to display the license number on his back as provided in Section 99, or violating any of the other provisions of this Act,¹ shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of this State, shall be fined fifteen dollars ($15) for each and every offense and shall stand committed to the County jail or the Baltimore City jail, until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed fifteen days for each offense. Any Constable or other person other than the Game Warden or Deputy Game Warden or officer under the Conservation Commissioner receiving compensation, who shall procure the conviction of any person for violating any provision or provisions of this Act¹ shall receive half of the fine recovered; the remaining half shall be paid over to the State Comptroller for account of the State Game Protection Fund, to be used as provided by Law.
