

An. Code, sec. 59. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 4.

61. All persons required to work under this sub-title shall receive compensation not less than the wage or salary paid to others engaged in the same nature of work to which each such person is assigned. If any such person is assigned to work for any department, board or commission of the State, then the compensation of such person shall be paid him by such department, board or commission out of the appropriation made to it by the State. If any such person is assigned to work for any county or for the City of Baltimore, or for any private employer, then the compensation of such person shall be paid to him by such county or the City of Baltimore or by the private employer accepting his services. Any such private employer shall be required to execute a bond to the State, in such penalty and with such surety as the Governor may approve, conditioned to guarantee the payment of such compensation as the same falls due. If any such private employer fails to pay to any such person the compensation so due him, then the same shall be paid by the State, out of any moneys in the Treasury available therefor and not otherwise appropriated, or out of any moneys appropriated therefor; in the latter event, such payments to be made on the order of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Council of Defense, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, the same to be directed to the Comptroller, who shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount thereof as in law provided. In the event of such payment by the State, the said bond of such employer shall be in default, and shall be put in suit by the State. No person shall be required to work under this sub-title any greater number of hours per day than lawfully constitutes a day's work in the occupation in which such person is required to engage.

An. Code, sec. 60. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5.

62. The Governor is authorized to appoint or employ such assistants as may be necessary, and to use such agencies as may be available and appropriate, to aid him in carrying out the provisions of this sub-title.

An. Code, sec. 61. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5A.

63. The provisions of this sub-title shall not apply to persons temporarily unemployed by reasons of differences with their employers.

An. Code, sec. 62. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5B.

64. Nothing in this sub-title shall apply to any person engaged or employed in any seasonal business, trade or occupation carried on in Baltimore City, or Allegany County.
