

total disability, not to exceed a maximum of eighteen dollars per week and not less than a minimum of eight dollars per week, unless the employee's established weekly wages are less than eight dollars per week at the time of the injury, in which event he shall receive compensation in an amount equal to his average weekly wages, but not to exceed a total of $5,000. Loss, or loss of use of both hands, or both arms, or both feet or both legs, or both eyes, or of any two thereof, shall, in the absence of conclusive proof to the contrary, constitute permanent total disability. In all other cases permanent total disability shall be determined in accordance with the facts.

(2) Temporary total disability. In case of temporary total disability, sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance thereof, but not to exceed a maximum of eighteen dollars per week and not less than a minimum of eight dollars per week, unless the employee's established weekly wages are less than eight dollars per week at the time of the injury, in which event he shall receive compensation equal to his full wages; but in no case to continue more than six years from the date of the injury or to exceed thirty-seven hundred and fifty dollars in the aggregate.

(3) Permanent partial disability. In case of disability partial in character but permanent in quality, the compensation shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages, in no case to exceed eighteen dollars per week and not less than a minimum of eight dollars per week unless the employee's established weekly wages are less than eight dollars per week at the time of the injury, in which event he shall receive compensation equal to his full wages, but in no case to exceed more than thirty-seven hundred and fifty dollars in the aggregate and shall be paid to the employees for the period named in the schedule as follows:

Thumb—For the loss of a thumb, fifty weeks.

First Finger—For the loss of a first finger, commonly called the index finger, thirty weeks.

Second Finger—For the loss of a second finger, twenty-five weeks.

Third Finger—For the loss of a third finger, twenty weeks.

Fourth finger—For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly called the little finger, fifteen weeks.

The loss of the second or distal phlange of the thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of the thumb; the loss of more than one-half of such thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole thumb; the loss of the third or distal phlange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-third of such finger. The loss of the middle or second phlange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of two-thirds of such finger. The loss of more than the middle and distal phlange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole of such finger; provided, however, that in no case shall the amount received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

Great Toe—For the loss of a great toe, twenty-five weeks.
