61. If any employer shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this article, the article shall not apply to him or his employes; if any employe shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this article, because of remoteness of his work from the hazard of his employer's work, any such adjudication shall not impair the validity of this article in other respects, and in every such case an accounting in accordance with the justice of the case shall be had of moneys received.

See notes to sec. 33.

An. Code, sec. 60A. 1916, ch. 597, sec. 60A.

62. When any person as a principal contractor, undertakes to execute any work which is a part of his trade, business or occupation which he has contracted to perform and contracts with any other person as sub-contractor, for the execution by or under the sub-contractor, of the whole or any part of the work undertaken by the principal contractor, the principal contractor shall be liable to pay to any workman employed in the execution of the work any compensation under this Article which he would have been liable to pay if that workman had been immediately employed by him; and where compensation is claimed from or proceedings are taken against the principal contractor, then, in the application of this Article, reference to the principal contractor shall be substituted for reference to the employer, except that the amount of compensation shall be calculated with reference to the earnings of the workman under the employer by whom he is immediately employed.

Where the principal contractor is liable to pay compensation under this section, he shall be entitled to indemnity from any employer, who would have been liable to pay compensation to the employee independently of this section, and shall have a cause of action therefor against such employer.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a workman from recovering compensation under this Article from the sub-contractor instead of from the contractor.

Whenever an employee of a sub-contractor files a claim under this Article against the principal contractor, the principal contractor shall have the right to join the sub-contractor or any intermediate contractors as defendant or co-defendant in the case.

An. Code, sec. 61. 1914, ch. 800, sec. 60.

63. The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this article; but this article shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose.
