

An. Code, sec. 75. 1910, ch. 219, sec. 74 (p. 30). 1912, ch. 194, sec. 74. 1918, ch. 33, sec. 75.

78. No person, co-partnership or corporation not subject to the supervision and examinations of the Bank Commissioner, and not required to make reports to him by the provisions of this Article, shall make use of any sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a banking institution as defined in this Article; nor shall such person or persons make use of or circulate any letter-heads, bill-heads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, circulars, or any written or printed, or partly written or printed paper whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other word or words indicating that such business is the business of a banking institution. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section, either individually or as an interested party in any copartnership or corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. The provisions of this section shall not apply to persons, copartnerships, or corporations which, on June 1, 1918, are engaged in business in incorporated towns or cities of the State of less than ten thousand inhabitants.

An. Code, sec. 76. 1910, ch. 219, sec. 75 (p. 31).

79. At all meetings of the stockholders of a bank or trust company for elections and other purposes, no person shall be allowed to vote on any share or shares of stock at such meetings, either in person or by proxy, unless the said person shall, if required by a stockholder, make oath before the judges of election, or other officers of the meeting, that he or she, as the case may be, is the lawful and bona fide owner of said stock, having purchased and paid, or secured payment for the same with a full consideration, or received the same by inheritance, bequest, marriage, distribution or gift, and without any understanding that the said stock is to be transferred to the party from whom it was received; or in case of voting by proxy or power of attorney, the person holding such proxy or power of attorney shall make oath or affirmation, if required by a stockholder, that he believed his principal, for whom he offers to vote, bought and paid for, or secured the payment for the said stock with a full consideration, or that the said principal, to the best of his knowledge and belief, is the real bona fide owner of said stock, having acquired the same, as the case may be, by inheritance, bequest, marriage, distribution or gift; provided, however, that this provision shall apply only to such shares of stock in the corporations aforesaid as shall appear to have been transferred upon the books of the corporation within one year next preceding the meeting at which it is offered to vote upon them; and provided further, that nothing in this article shall prevent a stockholder whose shares of stock shall be in good faith pledged for a loan from voting his or its stock so long as the same has not been actually sold.

An. Code, sec. 77. 1910, ch. 219, sec. 76 (p. 32).

80. Any person who shall wilfully or maliciously instigate, make, circulate or transmit to another or others any statement, untrue in fact,
