

An. Code, sec. 174. 1904, sec. 174. 1898, ch. 119.

174. When a bill is protested, such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor, unless delay is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly noted, the protest may be subsequently extended as to the date of the noting.

An. Code, sec. 175. 1904, sec. 175. 1898, ch. 119.

175. A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business or residence of some person other than the drawee, has been dishonored by non-acceptance, it must be protested for non-payment at the place where it is expressed to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to, or demand on, the drawee is necessary.

An. Code, sec. 176. 1904, sec. 176. 1898, ch. 119.

176. A bill which has been protested for non-acceptance may be subsequently protested for non-payment.

An. Code, sec. 177. 1904, sec. 177. 1898, ch. 119.

177. Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, before the bill matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better security against the drawer and indorsers.

An. Code, sec. 178. 1904, sec. 178. 1898, ch. 119.

178. Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, the bill must be noted or protested with reasonable diligence.

An. Code, sec. 179. 1904, sec. 179. 1898, ch. 119.

179. Where a bill is lost or destroyed, or is wrongly detained from the person entitled to hold it, protest may be made on a copy or written particulars thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.—Acceptance of Bills of Exchange for Honor.

An. Code, sec. 180. 1904, sec. 180. 1898, ch. 119.

180. Where a bill of exchange has been protested for dishonor by non-acceptance or protested for better security and is not overdue, any person not being a party already liable thereon may, with the consent of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor of any party liable thereon, or for the honor of the person for whose account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn; and where there has been an acceptance for honor for one party, there may be a further acceptance by a different person for the honor of another party.
