

An. Code, sec. 3. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 3 (p. 47).

3. A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

(a) Be contrary to the provisions of sections 1 to 60 of this article.

(b) In any wise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods entrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

An. Code, sec. 4. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 4 (p. 47).

4. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt.

See secs. 7 and 39.

An. Code, sec. 5. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 5 (p. 47).

5. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt.

No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void.

An. Code, sec. 6. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 6 (p. 47).

6. When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value, supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt.

An. Code, sec. 7. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 7 (p. 47).

7. A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value, supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable.

This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda or written acknowledgments of an informal character.

See art. 83, sec. 51.

An. Code, sec. 8. 1910, ch. 406, sec. 8 (p. 47).

8. A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by sections 1 to 60, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with:

(a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien.
