

Sheriff shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing the premises and keeping them closed a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the Court.

An. Code, sec. 136F. 1918, ch. 84, sec. 136F.

149. The proceeds of the sale of the personal property, as provided in the preceding section, shall be applied in the payment of the costs of the action and abatement, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of such property.

An. Code, sec. 136G. 1918, ch. 84, sec. 136G.

150. If the owner of the premises appears and pays all costs of the proceeding and files a bond, with sureties, to be approved by the Court or the Clerk thereof, in the full value of the property, to be ascertained by the Court, conditioned that he will immediately abate such nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept within a period of one year thereafter, the Court may, if satisfied of his good faith, order the premises closed under the order of abatement to be delivered to said owner and said order of closure canceled so far as the same may relate to said property; and if said bond be given and said costs paid before decree and order of abatement, the action shall be thereby abated as to said building only. The release of the property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subject by law.

An. Code, sec. 136H. 1918, ch. 84, sec. 136H.

151. Whenever a permanent injunction issues against any person for maintaining a nuisance as herein defined, or against any owner or agent of the building kept or used for the purpose prohibited by this sub-title, there shall be entered as part of the decree upon the said building and the ground upon which the same is located and against the person or persons maintaining said nuisance, and the owner or agent of said premises, an order for the payment of three hundred dollars, and the same shall be and remain a lien on the land until fully paid. The payment of said sum shall not relieve the persons or property from any other penalties provided by law, and the said amount when collected shall be applied in payment of any deficiency in the costs of the action and abatement on behalf of the State to the extent of such deficiency after the application thereto of the proceeds of the sale of personal property as hereinbefore provided, and the payment of a reasonable fee to be fixed by the Court to the attorney representing the State in the injunction action at the time of the final decree.
