

An. Code, sec. 42. 1904, sec. 41. 1888, sec. 39. 1801, ch. 86, sec. 6.

46. In case of the death, resignation, disqualification or removal from office of a notary public, his register and other public papers shall, within sixty days thereafter, be lodged in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county, or superior court of Baltimore city, who may bring and maintain actions of trover, replevin or detinue for the same; and such register or public papers shall not in any case be liable to be seized or taken in execution for debt, or for any demand whatsoever.

See art. 68, sec. 6.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

An. Code, sec. 43. 1904, sec. 42. 1888, sec. 40. 1805, ch. 65, sec. 18. 1894, ch. 298.

47. The clerk of the court of appeals shall have the custody of all the records and papers in the office of the late court of appeals, of the former court of appeals, and of the general court. He shall receive a salary of $3,000 per annum, for which sum, to be paid out of the treasury, the comptroller of the State shall draw his warrant. Said clerk may appoint, subject to the approval of the judges of the court of appeals, such deputy clerks as the requirements of his office shall necessitate, who shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the said judges and clerk, and shall receive such salaries as the said judges and clerk may determine to be just and proper compensation for their services, to be paid in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided for the payment of the salary of the said clerk of the court of appeals. The said clerk of the court of appeals shall render an account, as now prescribed by law, of all fees, emoluments and receipts of his said office, and shall pay the same to the treasurer of the State, as now required by law. The clerk of the court of appeals shall provide his office with such record books, dockets, etc., as may be suitable and necessary; and the sum of eight hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay for the same and such other necessary office expenses as he may incur. The record of causes pending in said court shall be printed under the direction of said clerk, and the briefs of counsel may be printed in like manner or may be printed by said counsel, at their option, and in every case the actual cost of printing of said records and briefs, at current rates, and no more, shall be taxed in said causes as the cost of making copies of said records and briefs. He shall give certified copies, under the seal of said court, of all papers and records of which he shall have custody as aforesaid, and such copies shall be evidence in the same manner as other certified copies of records are.

See notes to sec. 18.

As to fees chargeable by the clerk of the court of appeals, see art. 36, sec. 12.

The clerk of the court of appeals is a member of the state board of canvassers of elections—art. 33, sec. 95.

An. Code, sec. 44. 1904, sec. 43. 1896, ch. 163, sec. 40A.

48. The sum of eight hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby annually appropriated to pay for the record books, dockets, stationery, postage and other expenses of the office of the clerk of the court of appeals, for the payment of which the comptroller of the
