127. Nothing contained in this sub-title shall be so construed as to authorize the removal of any mill dam, or interference with the legal water rights appertaining to mills, nor to divert the water so as to deprive the owner over whose lands said water flows of the benefits and water rights now enjoyed by him. In case of the property or interest of any minor not having a guardian being affected by the draining of any swamp or low grounds, as hereinbefore provided, the Orphans' Court of the county shall appoint a guardian to protect the interest of such a minor.

The County Commissioners or Circuit Court for the county in which proceedings may be pending, at any time before a final decision is made, may upon application of any party thereto, grant leave, in their discretion to said parties to amend the petition, or any part of the proceedings thereunder that may be defective or informal so as to bring the merits of the case before said County Commissioners or jury of the Circuit Court for trial, and may award costs in their discretion, according to the right of the matter.

1920, ch. 507, sec. 81AT.

129. If any person feeling himself aggrieved by any determination of the County Commissioners, or by any proceedings had under this sub-title relating to drains, may appeal to the Circuit Court of the county in which such determination was made or proceedings were had, and shall be entitled to trial by jury, at the election of either party; provided, such appeal shall be taken within thirty days from the day such determination was made or such proceedings were had; and the judgment rendered thereupon shall be final between the parties thereto.
