

(f) To reside in, enter in any place, structure or building, or to remain, in any conveyance, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness or assignation;

(g) To engage in prostitution, lewdness or assignation by any means whatsoever.

This section referred to in upholding an indictment for perjury. Shaffer v. State, 87 Md. 127.

1920, ch. 737, sec. 19A.

21. The term "prostitution" shall be construed to mean the offering or receiving of the body for sexual intercourse for hire. The term "lewdness" shall be construed to mean any unnatural sexual practice. The term "assignation" shall be construed to include the making of any appointment, or engagement for prostitution or lewdness or any act in furtherance of such appointment or engagement.

1920, ch. 737, sec. 19B.

22. Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of Section 20 shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500.00 or to confinement in or commitment to any penal or reformatory institution in this State for not more than one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; provided, that the sentence or any part thereof may be suspended and provided that the defendant may be placed on parole or probation; provided further, that no girl or woman who shall be convicted under this Act shall be placed on parole or probation in the care or charge of any person, except a woman probation officer designated by law or by the court.¹
