

place, position or appointment. And every common carrier, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone company, telegraph company, water company, and all other companies or corporations subject to this sub-title or any of the provisions thereof, and every officer, attorney, agent and employee thereof is hereby forbidden and prohibited to offer to any commissioner, general counsel to the commission, or the People's Counsel, to the secretary of the commission, or to any person employed by the commission, any office, place, appointment or position, or to offer to give to any commissioner, to the general counsel to the commission, to the People's Counsel, to the secretary of the commission or to any officer employed or appointed to office, or to any person employed in the service of the commission or in connection with the work of said commission, any free pass or transportation or any reduction in fares, to which the public generally are not entitled, or any free carriage for freight or property, or any present, gift or gratuity of any kind. If any commissioner, general counsel to the commission, the People's Counsel, the secretary of the commission, or any person employed or appointed to office or in the service of the commission shall violate any provisions of this sub-title, the Governor shall remove him from the office held by him. No commissioner and no employee or official engaged in the service of or in any manner connected with the said commission shall hold any office or position, or be engaged in any business or avocation, the duties of which are incompatible with the duties of his office or employment as commissioner, or in the service of or in connection with the work of the said commission.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 359. 1912, sec. 423. 1910, ch. 180, sec. 11 (p. 353). 1927, ch. 354.

359. After an order has been made by the Commission, any party interested therein may apply for a rehearing in respect to any matter determined therein, and the Commission may grant and hold such a rehearing if, in its judgment, sufficient reason therefor be made to appear; if a rehearing shall be granted, the same shall be determined by the Commission within thirty days after the same shall be finally submitted. Any application for such a rehearing shall not excuse any common carrier, railroad corporation, or street railroad corporation, or any other corporation, or company or person, subject to any of the provisions of this sub-title, from complying with or obeying any order, or any requirements of any order of the Commission, or operate in any manner to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, except as the Commission may by order direct. If, after such rehearing and consideration of the facts, including those arising since the making of the order, the Commission shall be of opinion that the original order, or any part thereof, is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the Commission may abrogate, change or modify the same. An order made for any such rehearing, abrogating, changing or modifying the original order shall have the same force and effect as an original order.

Every order of the Commission shall be served upon every person or corporation to be affected thereby, either by personal delivery of a certified
