1927, ch. 228.

138A.¹ The Board of Supervisors of Election of Wicomico County shall have power whenever more than 600 persons are registered in any one election precinct, or in any election district which may not be divided into election precincts, to provide, in their discretion, one or two, but not more than three additional polling places in each such election precinct or district, and whenever the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Wicomico County shall designate an additional polling place or places in any election precinct, they shall appoint judges and clerks of election therefor as in this Article provided, who shall have all the powers, perform all the duties, be subject to all the responsibilities and be liable to all the penalties prescribed in this Article for judges and clerks of election. Whenever in Wicomico County an additional polling place or places are provided for any such election precinct, or election district, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Election of Wicomico County to cause an additional set or sets of books to be prepared, containing the names of registered voters, transcribed from the original books. Said sets of books shall contain the names of voters with such division and classification of the first letters of the surnames of voters, among the several sets of books, as shall in the discretion of the Board of Supervisors of Wicomico County most expeditiously and evenly divide the total number of voters for such election precinct or election district among the polling places provided therefor. One set of books shall be used in each of the polling places designated as provided for in this section. All the members of the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Wicomico County shall sign their names to the books which contain the names copied from the original books for such polling places, in the hands of said Supervisors and shall duly certify that said sets of books, so copied, contain all the names of the persons entitled to vote in such election precinct or district, such said certificate shall appear on the blank line next following the last name in each letter of the alphabetical list of names in the new books so transcribed, and such said certification shall be attested by the Clerk of said Board of Supervisors.
