

Miscellaneous.

29-30. Repealed by ch. 505 of the Acts of 1929.

1927, ch. 352.

33A. The State Department of Forestry shall have power and authority to accept the use of lands to be used for auxiliary State Forest Reserves and to enter into such agreements with the owners thereof as may be necessary, and said lands shall be subject to all laws, rules and regulations now or hereafter created governing State Forest Reserves; provided, however, that no monies appropriated to the State Department of Forestry shall be used or expended on said auxiliary State Forests for permanent improvements or for any purpose other than supervision, opening of trails and the building of temporary structures to make such lands available for campers and visitors, and for the protection of the lands from fire and trespass.
