6.

See notes to sec. 7.

1929, ch. 475.

6A. All persons, firms and corporations, required to procure licenses under the laws of this State, who shall fail or neglect to procure the same within the time prescribed by law, shall pay, in addition to the prescribed license fee, an additional fee equal to ten per centum (10%) of said license fee for each and every month thereafter that the fee shall remain unpaid. Provided, however, that such licensees shall not be deemed to be in default under the provisions of this section until after the lapse of thirty days from the date on which they may be required to obtain such licenses.

7.

This section did not repeal sec. 6, but the authority given by this section is in addition to that in sec. 6. Arnreich v. State, 150 Md. 93.

Traders.

42.

Person who cleans and cuts up fish or cuts up carcasses of animals for sale, not manufacturer within meaning of this section; long, uninterrupted and unvarying construction put upon this section by administrative officers in not demanding trader's licenses from stall owners in Baltimore City markets, accepted by court. Arnreich v. State, 150 Md. 92.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 43. 1912, sec. 39. 1904, sec. 39. 1888, sec. 36. 1858, ch. 414, sec. 2. 1862, ch. 49. 1880, ch. 349. 1929, ch. 36.

43. When any person, body politic or corporate shall propose to sell or barter, or dispose of, or offer for sale anything mentioned in the preceding section, except spirituous or fermented liquors, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which he proposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels or merchandise; or if he purposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels or merchandise in the City of Baltimore, to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for a license therefor; and a license to offer for sale issued by said clerk of Court of Common Pleas or by the clerk of the circuit court for any county shall be good and sufficient as a license to offer for sale in every part of the State; provided that such license shall not authorize the holder thereof to open or carry on any store or fixed place of business for such selling or offering for sale in any place other than in the place of business designated in said license and in the
