Transfer of Ownership.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 185. 1912, sec. 142. 1916, ch. 687. 1918, ch. 85, sec. 142.
1920, ch. 506, sec. 142. 1927, ch. 520, sec. 185.

185. Upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle, its certificate of registration and the right to use the number plates or markers aforesaid shall expire, and the registration markers shall be removed at the time of the transfer of possession, unless said owner shall give the purchaser written permission to use said markers for a period of five days, as provided in Section 192 hereof. In such latter case it shall be the duty of the purchaser to remove said markers promptly at the expiration of such five days and return them either to the original owner of the motor vehicle or to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, and it shall be unlawful for the purchaser or any person other than the person to whom such markers were originally issued to have the same in his possession after the expiration of such five days, whether in use or not; provided, however, that in the case of a transfer of ownership, the original owner may register another motor vehicle under the same number upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) where such motor vehicle is of less or equal horsepower or tonnage as that originally registered; or upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) and the difference between the fee originally paid and that due, in case the new motor vehicle be properly registered in a higher class.
