

1927, ch. 363.

228A.¹ In computing the license fees of garages according to the preceding section, a space fifteen feet wide and extending the entire length or depth of the garage, in all cases where a space is required, by law or any official regulation, to be kept open, shall be deducted from the total floor space of the garage. The owner of any place or building for rent where three or more motor vehicles are stored, or where three or more motor vehicles are kept or stored for a consideration, whether in a public space or in separate or private compartments, must obtain a license under the preceding section. But anything in said preceding section to the contrary notwithstanding, the license fees for garages having less than 1600 square feet of floor space, after deductions therein and herein allowed, shall be as follows:

Garages containing not more than 500 square feet.....	$5.00;
Those containing more than 500 and not more than 1,000 square feet.	10.00;
Those containing more than 1,000 and not more than 1,600 square feet.	15.00.
