

1927, ch. 705, sec. 4.

4. Method of Procedure. The legislative body of such municipality shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least 15 days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in an official paper, or a paper of general circulation, in such municipality.

1927, ch. 705, sec. 5.

5. Changes. Such regulations, restrictions and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 100 feet therefrom, or of those directly opposite thereto extending 100 feet from the street frontage of such opposite lots, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the legislative body of such municipality. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearings and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

1927, ch. 705, sec. 6.

6. Zoning Commission. In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Article, such legislative body shall appoint a commission, to be known as the Zoning Commission, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and such legislative body shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. Where a Board of Zoning Appeals already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission.

7. Board of Zoning Appeals. Such local legislative body may provide for the appointment of a Board of Zoning Appeals, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Article may provide that the said Board of Zoning Appeals may, in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

The Board of Zoning Appeals shall consist of five members and they shall be appointed for a term of four years, but of the first appointed members one shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years and one for a term of four years. Va-
