

1927, ch. 538, sec. 16.

16. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this Article for which no penalty is specifically provided shall be subject to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(2) Where a pensioner is convicted of an offense under this section the judge may cancel the certificate.

1927, ch. 538, sec. 17.

17. If a pensioner is convicted of any misdemeanor, felony or other offense, punishable by imprisonment for one month or longer, payments shall not be made during the period of imprisonment.

1927, ch. 538, sec. 18.

18. (1) The County Commissioners of each County or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore which establishes an old age pension system shall annually appropriate a sum of money sufficient to carry out the provisions of this Article. Upon the orders of the judge of the Circuit Court (or of the Superior Court of Baltimore City), the county treasurer (or the City Comptroller) shall pay out the amounts ordered to be paid as pensions, under the provisions of this Article.

1927, ch. 538, sec. 19.

19. Within thirty days after the close of each calendar year, the Clerk of the Circuit Court for each county and the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City shall make a report for the preceding year, to the Board of State-Aid and Charities stating:

- (a) The amount paid for pensions;
- (b) The total number of applications for pensions;
- (c) The number granted, the number denied, the number cancelled during that year, and such other information as the Board may deem advisable.

1927, ch. 538, sec. 20.

20. The Board of State Aid and Charities shall from time to time prescribe and promulgate rules and regulations to efficiently carry out the provisions of this Article, and shall publish such information as it may deem advisable to acquaint aged persons and the public generally with the old age pension plan of this State.
