by the County Commissioners of each county, and the Supervisor of Assessments for Baltimore City shall likewise be furnished an office in Baltimore City by the Mayor and City Council; and they shall be allowed such clerical help and expense as the County Commissioners and the Mayor City Council of Baltimore shall respectively determine. They shall confer frequently with the State Tax Commission, submitting questions for determination to that Commission and shall receive and carry out instructions given by the Commission or the Chief Supervisor of Assessments appointed by the Commission for their guidance in supervising the valuation and assessment of real and personal property; they shall likewise keep constantly informed of the method of work pursued by other Supervisors of Assessments.

1929, ch. 226, sec. 168.

The Supervisors of Assessments shall have general supervision over the assessment of all property in the County or City for which they They shall have power to recommend assessments to the are appointed. County Commissioners or other authority as required by law, and shall have power, and are charged with the duty, to appeal to the State Tax Commission from any and all assessments or rulings which such supervisors shall consider improper when made by the several boards of County Commissioners in the Counties or the Appeal Tax Court in Baltimore City. They shall visit each district of the County or City for which they are appointed at frequent intervals, obtaining all necessary data and information as to the valuation and existence of property subject to taxation, keep posted on sales in the county, with conditions attending said sales, and report the same and the consideration thereof to the State Tax Commission and the County Commissioners or Appeal Tax Court. From these reports and the evidence obtainable, it shall be determined by the respective County Commissioners or Appeal Tax Court whether the assessment against any property or whether any unit of assessment values in any district shall be changed. In case the data submitted is not satisfactory either to the State Tax Commission of the County Commissioners or Appeal Tax Court either shall have the power to obtain additional data, and in case the assessment so determined upon is not satisfactory, the County Commissioner<sup>1</sup> or the State Tax Commission or Appeal Tax Court shall order a new valuation.

1929, ch. 226, sec. 169.

169. The Supervisor of Assessments of Baltimore City shall have access to the assessment books of Baltimore City, and all records of the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore City, and the returns of all assessments made by assessors. He shall have authority to inquire into the assessment of any and all properties and to report the results of his investigations to the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore City and to the State Tax Commission, and to recommend such changes as he may deem proper. Upon any investigation which shall prima facie establish inequality or inadequacy of valuation

<sup>1</sup> Evidently a typographical error in act.