

1927, ch. 568, sec. 48.

49. It shall be unlawful for any person for hire, to push, paddle, or convey on the waters of this State, for the purpose of hunting, shooting or killing Rallidae or Rail, Sora or Reed Birds, without first procuring a license from the Clerk of the Court of the County in which he or they reside, for which he shall pay the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00); and in addition to the license fee so received, the Clerk issuing same shall collect and retain the sum of Fifty Cents (50c) in lieu of all other compensation; Two Dollars ($2.00) of said amount to be forwarded to the Comptroller of the State, the first of each and every month, to be placed to the credit of The State Game Protection Fund. Each and every license shall expire December 1st after date of issuance and every person obtaining such license shall paint the license number on each side of the bow of the boat or skiff to be used for the purpose of pushing or paddling, in figures not less than two inches high, and of such a character and color that the same may be easily read. No person not a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland shall be entitled to have a license to push or paddle issued to him by the Clerk of the Court.

Any person convicted before any Justice of the Peace of this State for violating any of the provisions of this sub-title, for which a specific penalty is not otherwise provided, shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each and every offense.

Susquehanna Flats.

1927, ch. 340, sec. 1. 1929, ch 459, sec. 1.

50. For the purpose of this sub-title, all the part of the Chesapeake Bay and its waters lying within the following lines shall be known as the "Susquehanna Flats," more briefly referred to herein as the Flats.

All that portion of the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries lying south of a line drawn east from Concord Lighthouse, in Harford County, to Carpenters Point, on the western shore of Cecil County, and north of a line beginning at the lighthouse on Turkey Point, in Cecil County, and drawn westerly to a point half of a mile north of the northerly part of Spesutia Island; thence continuing said line still westward, but at no time approaching nearer than half of a mile from the northern end of said island and the adjacent mainland, until it reaches the Harford County shore, at or near Oakington.

The Game Warden may, when he deems advisable, mark certain points of the lines herein defined by buoys.

51. For the purposes of this sub-title, a "gunning rig" is defined as a craft, boat or boats or sink box, customarily used or intended to be used in connection with sink-box shooting, or a flat bottom bateau or boat with bush or canvas blinds (commonly known as a sneak-boat or bush-whacking outfit) which shall be without power, except oars, and may be engaged in
