48. Every minor employee engaged in extra hazardous employment or work covered by this article shall be deemed sui juris for the purposes of this Article; and no other person shall have any cause of action or right to compensation for any injury to such minor employee unless otherwise herein provided. All compensation and death benefits provided by this Article, however, shall be doubled in the case of any minor employed illegally under the laws of this State, with the knowledge of the employer, and no insurance policy shall be available to protect the employer of such minor from the payment of the extra or additional compensation or benefits to be awarded by reason of such illegal employment, but the employer alone shall be liable for the said increased amount of compensation or death benefits; provided, however, that the certificate of the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of any employment for the purposes of this Article.

Workmen's Compensation Law does not apply to minors employed in violation of Child Labor Law. See art. 100, secs. 4, 10. Suit at law; demurrer; prayers. Tilghman v. Conway, 150 Md. 530 (decided prior to act 1927, ch. 536).

As to wages of minors, see art. 72A, sec. 2.
