

1929, ch. 351, sec. 78.

78. The said Retirement Board shall be vested with all the powers and duties necessary or proper to enable it to carry out fully and effectually all the purposes of this sub-title. A majority of said Retirement Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or for the exercise of any power or duty, and may hold meetings of the said Retirement Board at any time or place within the State. All hearings of said Retirement Board shall be open to the public, and all documents or records in its possession shall be public records, and open to the public for inspection at reasonable times, and all hearings before said Retirement Board shall be governed by rules to be adopted and prescribed by it, and said Retirement Board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence.¹

¹ Sec. 2 of ch. 351 of the acts of 1929 repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
