

in the judgment of the Commission, to determine the fitness of applicants by competitive examinations, and shall include all positions and employments now existing or hereafter created of whatever functions, designations or compensation, in each and every branch of the Classified City Service except such positions as are in the Exempt Class, the Non-Competitive Class or the Labor Class.

NON-COMPETITIVE CLASS.

1918, Home Rule Charter.

203G. The Non-Competitive Class shall include such positions as are not in the Exempt Class or Labor Class and which it is not practicable, in the judgment of the Commission, to include in the Competitive Class.

THE LABOR CLASS.

1918, Home Rule Charter.

203H. The Labor Class shall include unskilled laborers and such skilled laborers as may be so classified by the rules and regulations of the Commission. No person shall be included in the Labor Class whose service shall consist of clerical work, office work, or inspection of other work or service.

EXAMINATION AND CERTIFICATION.

1918, Home Rule Charter.

203-I. The Commission shall in its rules provide among other things:

(a) For examinations and such other tests as may in its judgment be necessary to determine the fitness of applicants for positions in the Competitive and Non-Competitive Classes.

(b) For the employment of those in the Labor Class either in the order of priority of application or by selection on account of fitness or by such other method as the Board may find will produce the best results.

(c) For the rejection of candidates who fail to comply with reasonable requirements as to age, sex, physical condition and moral character.

(d) For the preparation of lists of candidates eligible for employment, which lists in the case of the Competitive Class shall be arranged in the order of the relative standing of applicants as determined by the Commission.

(e) For the certification, as occasion may require, to the appointing officer of the persons eligible to employment under the rules of the Commission, provided that in the case of the Competitive Class such certification shall include only the five persons standing highest on the appropriate eligible list, or the person or persons on such list when it contains five names or less.
