

INTOXICATING LIQUORS.*

1894, ch. 140, sec. 175A. 1896, ch. 118. 1904, ch. 57, sec. 175A. 1908, ch. 628, sec. 175A (p. 323).

299. Every person applying for a license to keep an oyster house, cook shop, victualling house, tavern, lager beer saloon, or for any ordinary license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, and every person applying for a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by retail, under Article 56, sections 55 to 66, inclusive, of the Code of Public General Laws of 1888,† in Allegany County, shall file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany County his, her or their petition for such license, and shall at the same time pay to said clerk two dollars for expenses connected therewith; and said clerk shall cause to be published three times in at least one newspaper published in the town or city on which or nearest to which the applicant's proposed place of business is to be located, a list of the names of all such applicants, their respective residences and the location of the place of business, and the owner of the premises for which such application is made, and where, under the provisions of this Act the publication might be made in one of several newspapers, the applicant may designate the one in which the publication shall be made; the first publication shall not be less than twenty days before the time fixed by said clerk for the consideration of such application.

Local law not abrogated by 18th Amendment to Constitution of U. S. or by Volstead Act. Molinari v. State, 141 Md. 565. Weisengoff v. State, 143 Md. 638.

1894, ch. 140, sec. 175B. 1902, ch. 415, sec. 175B. 1904, ch. 57, sec. 175B. 1908, ch. 628, sec. 175B (p. 323). 1910, ch. 296, sec. 175B (p. 475).

300. Said petition shall state the names and residences of the applicant or applicants, and how long he, she or they may have resided in said county. Second, the particular place for which the license is desired, designating the same by street and number, if practicable, and if not by such other apt description as definitely locates it. Third, the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business to be licensed is to be carried on. Fourth, a statement that the applicant or applicants is or are a citizen or citizens of the United States. Fifth, that the applicant or applicants have not, nor has either of them, had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors revoked under the provisions of this law or the law hereby repealed within the past three years, nor has either of them been convicted of any infamous crime, nor has any person whose license has been revoked under the provisions of this Act, any interest in the business to be carried on under the license applied for; nor will the applicant or applicants permit such person or persons to acquire such interest during the existence of the license applied for. Sixth, a statement as to which of the two kinds of licenses granted under this Act is applied for. Seventh, that he, she or they will not sell or give or allow to be sold or given away in said house or remove from said house or on or from said premises any

*See secs. 178-179 of this Article.

†Secs. 73-84 of 1924 edition.