

such prior passenger shall not be obliged or asked to pay any extra fare or fee for refusing such consent, and every person having charge of a hackney carriage shall, immediately after delivering any passenger, search said carriage for any property which may have been left therein, and any property found therein by any person having charge of any hackney carriage, and not restored to the owner thereof within twenty-four hours, shall be delivered by the finder thereof to the Police Commissioner, to be by him held and disposed of as required by law in the case of lost and stolen property. Any person violating the provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars.

1865, ch. 90. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 140. 1910, ch. 109.

286. The said Police Commissioner is authorized and empowered to set aside and designate certain places in the City of Baltimore to be occupied and used as public or private stands for hackney carriages, and to stipulate the number of such carriages which may occupy or use each of such stands, and to make regulations for the occupation and use of such stands. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section or any regulation made by the said Police Commissioner under the authority in this section conferred shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay a fine of not exceeding twenty dollars.

Swann v. Baltimore, 132 Md. 256.

1865, ch. 90. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 141.

287. Each and every proprietor of hackney carriages shall, at the time when he applies for a special license, or any renewal thereof, furnish the Comptroller or other proper officer of the City of Baltimore with a correct statement of the number of hackney carriages used by him; and such owner, whenever he shall increase the number of such hackney carriages, shall report such increase to the Comptroller or other proper officer of said city; and every person violating any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit his license, and be liable to a penalty of ten dollars.

288 and 289. Repealed by Act of 1910, Chapter 109.

P. L. L. (1860), Art. 4, sec. 148. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 144.

290. All penalties which shall be recovered for the breach of any of the provisions of this sub-division of this Article, shall be appropriated one-half to the use of the dispensaries in the City of Baltimore, to be equally divided between them, and the other half to the use of the informer, whose name shall be endorsed on the warrant issued for the recovery of each respective penalty.

HORSES, ETC., LIVERY STABLE CHARGES.
