

liquors on Sunday or on election day. Eighth, that he, she or they will not knowingly sell or give or allow to be sold or given any liquors to minors at any time, nor will he, she or they sell or give away intoxicating liquors or allow the same to be sold or given away to an habitual drunkard or any person of whom he has received notice from his parent or parents, guardian, husband, wife, son, daughter, brother or sister, that such person is of intemperate habits. Ninth, that he, she or they will not allow any minor to drink, loiter or loaf or be employed in said house or on said premises, except clerks, bell-boys, porters or boot-blacks bona fide employed as such about hotels. Tenth, that he, she or they will not permit gambling or keep or permit to be kept a bawdy house in said house or on said premises, or the gathering together in said house or on said premises of women for lewd or immoral purposes. Eleventh, that he, she or they will not furnish any room or rooms in their places of business or connected therewith for women; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to the keepers of bona fide hotel. Twelfth, that said applicant or applicants and all persons interested or that may become interested in said business has been or have been a resident or residents of said Allegany County for more than one year prior to the filing of said application, and (if a male) entitled to register, was entitled to vote at the general election held in the month of November preceding the filing of said application. Thirteenth, the names of not less than two reputable freeholders of Allegany County, or of a bonding or surety company, authorized to do business in the State of Maryland, who will be his, her or their sureties or surety on the bond that is required by this Act and statement (if personal security be given), that each of said sureties is a bona fide owner of real estate in said county worth over and above all incumbrances the sum of one thousand dollars. Fourteenth, that no person not a resident of Allegany County for the period of one year prior to the time of filing said petition, or a non-resident of the State of Maryland, shall have any interest in the business for which license hereunder is applied for; provided, however, that the conditions of this paragraph as well as the foregoing twelfth paragraph of this section shall not apply to licenses to sell spirituous or fermented liquors granted to bona fide hotel-keepers or tavern-keepers. Fifteenth, a statement of all persons interested or to be interested in the business. Sixteenth, this petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the applicant or applicants made before a justice of the peace, a notary public or Clerk of the Circuit Court. If any false statement be made in any part of said petition, the petitioner or petitioners shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of perjury and such license revoked, and he, she or they be subject to the penalties provided by law for that crime; provided, however, that paragraphs 12 and 14 of this section shall not apply to licenses to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by retailers, under Article 56, sections 55 to 66,† inclusive, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland.

---

†Secs. 73-84 of 1924 edition.