

1918, ch. 328, sec. 14.

23. Joseph P. McCormick, Harry Malcolm and Gilbert C. Cooling are hereby appointed registrars to hold the several registrations of voters under this Act, prior to and including the election of the first town officials provided for in this Act, and that immediately after the passage of this Act they shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place thereof by handbills posted in at least five (5) public places in said town, at which all qualified voters, as provided for in Section 13 of this Article may be registered; and the said officers of registration shall take oath before some Justice of the Peace of the said County, to permit every qualified voter to register and none other; the majority of the registration officers shall have power to do all things under this section in case one of them dies or refuses to act; and that upon the completion of the registry of votes the officers herein named shall give the judges of election a list of the names so registered.

24. Gordon Durst, Patrick Conroy and Philip Lashbaugh are hereby appointed judges of election to hold the several elections provided under this Act prior to and including the election of the first town officials under this Act, and at least ten (10) days before the first Monday in June, 1918, or the first Monday in June, 1919, they shall give notice that the election shall be held and the time and place thereof by handbills, posted in at least five (5) public places in said town at which election all persons qualified as prescribed in Section 13 of this Article shall be entitled to vote for one person for Mayor, one person for Clerk, and four (4) persons for Commissioners, and such judges of election before opening the polls shall take oath before some Justice of the Peace in Allegany County, to permit every qualified voter to vote and none other, and the majority of said judges shall have power to do all things herein provided, in case one should die or refuse to act.

25. The provisions of this Act incorporating the town of Barton and providing for the election of its town officials shall not be effective and in effect until the citizens of said town qualified to vote as hereinbefore set forth and who have been properly registered in conformity with the provisions of this Act, shall by a majority vote, accept this act of incorporation, and the said judges of election shall submit forthwith to the qualified voters of said town the question of such incorporation and the acceptance of this Act, by calling an election on the first Monday of May, 1918, when the qualified voters may assemble and vote as herein provided. The said appointed judges giving at least ten (10) days' notice of such time and place of the said election and the ballot to be cast at said election shall have printed thereon "For Incorporation" and "Against Incorporation" and if a majority of the said voters shall vote in favor of incorporation
