

1894, ch. 140, sec. 175K.

310. If any person shall barter or sell any goods, wares or merchandise in Allegany County, without taking out a license therefor, as provided in Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, he shall on conviction therefor pay a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, for each offense; and upon failure to pay said fine and costs of prosecution, shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of twenty days, whichever shall first occur; and if any person shall barter or sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Allegany County, in quantities not less than a pint, without taking out a license therefor, as provided in Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, he shall, on conviction, pay a fine of fifty dollars for the first offense, and for the second offense, he shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars, and the court shall suppress his license, and upon failure to pay said fine and costs of prosecution, he shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of twenty days, whichever shall first occur.

1894, ch. 140, sec. 175L. 1898, ch. 225, sec. 175L. 1902, ch. 415, sec. 175L.
 1904, ch. 57, sec. 175L. 1908, ch. 628, sec. 175L (p. 323).
 1910, ch. 296, sec. 175L (p. 479).

311. Any person having a license under the provisions of this Act who shall hereafter be convicted of knowingly selling or bartering or giving any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, or knowingly selling or bartering or giving to any person such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to be drunk by any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, or shall give, sell or barter any such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person on Sunday or at the times prohibited by law shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail in the discretion of the court, or both fine and imprisonment, and in default of payment of fine and costs so imposed, the bond herein provided for shall be put in suit for the recovery thereof, and upon conviction of a third like offense his license, in the discretion of the Court, may be suppressed, and in event of a suppression of said license no license shall be granted to such person within three years from the date of his conviction, and no license shall be granted for the sale of liquors under this Act until after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of his conviction for the place or premises whereat the person so convicted carried on business and violated this Act. Any person having a license under the provisions of this Act who shall hereafter be convicted of selling or furnishing or giving any intoxicating spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any habitual drunkard or person of intemperate habits after receiving the notice required by the provisions of Section 307 of this Article, shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, and in