

of which, together with all the expense for repairs, shall be paid by the inspectors.

1864, ch. 384. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 481.

564. The inspectors shall severally account for, under oath, and pay over to the Treasurer, quarterly, all moneys received by them as inspectors, after retaining for their services three-fourths of all moneys received under Sections 556 and 560, and one-fifth of all moneys received under Section 562 of this Article.

1867, ch. 241. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 482.

565. It shall be the duty of the inspector of hay and straw having charge of the eastern hay scales at Canton, in the City of Baltimore, to weigh all cattle and hogs required by law to be weighed, which may be brought to said scales for that purpose; and the said inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive for the use of the State, for the first time of weighing any livestock, except sheep, required by law to be weighed, two cents for every hundredweight, and one cent per head for every sheep; and for every second and subsequent weighing, for cattle and hogs, two cents for every thousand weight, and sheep, one cent for every thousand weight, and all live-stock not required to be weighed, the sum of six cents for every thousand weight.

1867, ch. 241. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 483.

566. He shall keep a full record of all weights as ascertained and determined by him, of what, and for whom the same may be ascertained and determined, and all money received by him for weighing live-stock, and all expenditures and disbursements, in books to be provided for him for that purpose, which books shall belong to the State, and shall at all times be subject to the inspection and order of the Comptroller; and he shall, at the expiration of every six months, or within five days thereafter, upon his oath, taken before a Justice of the Peace for said city, make a full statement of all receipts for weighing all live-stock weighed by him for the six months immediately preceding said statement, and from whom received, and all disbursements by him made to the Comptroller; and if the balance in the hands of said inspector for weighing live-stock for said six months shall exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, he shall pay the excess into the Treasury; but if there be no excess over and above two hundred dollars, after deducting all necessary expenses for receipts for weighing livestock, the said inspector shall retain the balance as compensation for his services for weighing such live-stock.

1867, ch. 241. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 484.

567. Upon failure and refusal of any agent or owner of live-stock to pay for weighing the same he may impound any number of live-stock he may deem necessary to cause such fees to be paid; provided, no injury be done to said stock by confining them as aforesaid, and that they be
