

Judges as aforesaid, and still remaining upon said list of qualified jurors, and from such further names, if any, as the Judges of the Supreme Bench, or a majority of them, shall select and cause to be added to said list; and the said drawing shall be made, and the names drawn shall be recorded in the manner provided in Sections 605 and 606; and the talesmen shall be summoned from such additional number of persons so drawn in the manner hereinbefore directed.

P. L. L. (1860), Art. 4, sec. 611. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 595.

611. Every petit juror sworn upon any special panel shall continue to serve thereon until discharged by the court, notwithstanding the expiration of his term of three weeks, aforesaid; but no one summoned as a juror shall be excused from service except in open court, on good cause shown to the satisfaction of the court; and if any juror summoned, and not excused, shall fail to attend the said court until duly discharged, he shall be fined, for the use of the said city, not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars, to be recovered by attachment, or such other appropriate process as the said court may direct.

Mills v. State, 76 Md. 280. See City Code (1879), pages 566-569.

1882, ch. 67. 1884, ch. 450. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 596.

612. It shall be the duty of said Judges, or a majority of them, to assemble as hereinbefore in this sub-division of this Article provided, on the Thursday preceding the fourth Monday of each term, and thereafter so long as a jury may be required for any of said courts, from three weeks to three weeks during each term of each of the said courts which may require the attendance of a jury; at such meetings the said Judges, or a majority of them, shall cause the names of those who have served on any of the regular panels of the aforesaid courts since the making of the list of qualified jurors as aforesaid to be stricken from said list; and the persons whose names are so stricken from said list shall not be liable to serve again as jurors for two years, accounting from the beginning of the term for which their names were so entered on the list of qualified jurors; the said Judges, or a majority of them, shall then add to said list of qualified jurors such qualified persons as shall suffice to make up the number of seven hundred and fifty qualified persons, or thereabouts. From the said whole number the jurors to serve for three weeks from the ensuing Monday shall then be drawn for the said courts, and their names be recorded in the said jury books in the manner hereinbefore provided by this sub-division of this Article, under the superintendence of one or more of said Judges. And if, at the time of any drawing, juries shall not be required for all of said courts, then it shall not be necessary to draw panels for the court not requiring them, but jurors shall be drawn for such courts only as may need them, in the manner hereinbefore provided in this Article relating to jurors, so far as concerns the courts requiring such juries; and besides summoning said panels for the said courts, the Sheriff shall also summon at the same time such number of
