

Court, in the discharge of their duties as such Police Justices and Justices of the Peace of the People's Court, respectively, and shall have the right to punish any breach of order or decorum committed in their presence by a fine not exceeding $10.00, to be collected as other fines are collected, and in default of the payment of said fine imposed by the said several Justices of the Peace assigned to the station-houses in Baltimore City or by a Justice of the Peace of the People's Court, the said Justice shall have the power to commit the person on whom said fine is imposed to the Baltimore City Jail for a period not exceeding one day for each one dollar of fine so imposed. Provided, that in all cases where fine is imposed under this section the party on whom the said fine is imposed, if he feels aggrieved thereby, may within three days (exclusive of the date of the imposition of said fine) appeal to the Criminal Court of Baltimore from the action of the said Police Justice or Justices of the Peace of the People's Court in such case; and pending the hearing of said appeal, shall give surety for his appearance in the Criminal Court of Baltimore in a sum to be fixed by the said Justice, which sum shall not be in excess of twice the amount of said fine imposed; and the person on whom such fine is imposed under this section, shall at his option, instead of furnishing surety for his appearance, have the right pending his appeal, to deposit with the Justice a sum in cash double the amount of the fine imposed, as collateral security for his appearance in the Criminal Court of Baltimore on said appeal. Provided, no appeal shall be allowed under this section after payment of the fine, but deposit of cash, as such collateral security in double the amount of the fine shall not be construed to be a payment of the said fine.

1882, ch. 219. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 616.

633. In all criminal prosecutions or proceedings which, under the provisions of Section 632 may be heard, tried and determined before a Justice of the Peace sitting at a station-house in the City of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of such Justice of the Peace before whom such case is tried, in the event of the conviction of the accused at the said trial, to impose upon the said accused so convicted, the fine, or the fine and punishment prescribed in case of such conviction by the Act of Assembly of this State, or by the ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for the violation of which the accused was so tried. Any person sentenced to the payment of any fine, and to the payment of the costs of his prosecution, who shall not forthwith pay the said fine and the costs of said prosecution, shall be committed by such Justice of the Peace to the jail of Baltimore City until such fine and costs are paid, or until the said person shall be discharged from such jail by the due course of law.

634. When a person charged with any offence referred to in this subdivision of this Article, or the State's Attorney, shall pray a jury trial, the Justice of the Peace shall, in addition to his duties prescribed in Section 632, endorse upon said commitment or recognizance the names
