

1906, ch. 244, sec. 10.

663-J. Each license and renewal of same shall be in force and effect only so long as an approved bond filed with the said Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect, and every such license or renewal of same shall become utterly void and of no effect, should any such bond for any reason whatsoever become inoperative or ineffective, regardless of the regular date of expiration of said certificate, license or renewal.

1906, ch. 244, sec. 11.

663-K. Any and all persons granted a license or renewal of same shall display the same in a conspicuous place in the office or place of business of such licensee.

1906, ch. 244, sec. 12.

663-L. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any person from doing or performing any of the kinds of work enumerated in Section 5 of this Act, provided that such work is performed under the direction and supervision of a duly licensed Master Electrician; but no such work, other than minor electric repairs for the maintenance of established plants, shall be performed excepting under such direction and supervision of a duly licensed Master Electrician, and the said licensed electrician shall be responsible for any and all work so done under his direction and supervision.

1906, ch. 244, sec. 13.

663-M. Any person, firm or corporation who shall practice or engage or continue in the work of a Master Electrician without having complied with all the provisions of this Act, and any person not licensed as Master Electrician, who shall do or perform any such work except under the direction of a Master Electrician, and any person having been licensed as a Master Electrician and who shall fail to renew his license as herein provided, and shall do or perform any such work, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to an imprisonment not exceeding ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the Court, and any such conviction shall ipso facto revoke and annul any license that may have been issued to such person.

1906, ch. 244, sec. 14.

663-N. No license or renewal of same granted or issued under the provisions of this Act shall be assignable or transferable, and every license and renewal of same shall specify the name of the person, firm or corporation to whom it is issued, and in the case of a firm, the member of said firm, and in case of a corporation, the principal officer or the designated representatives of said corporation, through whom the application for the said license was made.
