

oath before a Justice of the Peace that they will faithfully perform the duties of their office, and shall give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, to be approved by the Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore City.

1910, ch. 693. 1912, ch. 814.

691D. That all persons who, at the time of the enactment of this Act, are engaged in the business of a moving picture machine operator in the City of Baltimore, as described in section 2 of this Act, shall within sixty days after the first day of May, 1910, comply with all the provisions of this Act, otherwise they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, before a police justice or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, be fined a sum not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, for each day or fraction thereof that they shall pursue the business of moving picture machine operator in the City of Baltimore; and if said fine is not paid, shall be subject to imprisonment for thirty days or both at the discretion of the judge.

State v. Loden, 117 Md. 373.

1910, ch. 693. 1912, ch. 814. 1918, ch. 195.

691E. That if any such person desires to engage or continue in said business of moving picture machine operator, after the passage of this Act, he shall apply to the Board provided for in Section 3 of this Act, for a license and submit to an examination as to his qualification before said Board; and, if found proficient by said Board, they shall issue a license, otherwise they shall refuse to grant a license; if the said Board shall find, after due examination, that the said applicant for a license possesses a reasonable knowledge of the moving picture machine operator business and electricity, as pertains to the operation and management of moving picture machine, then the said Board shall, upon payment of the fee herein provided for, issue to said applicant a license for a term of not more than one year, and shall keep a record of all so issued; and no person shall be granted a license who has not reached the age of 21 years, and makes oath to such fact, and has had at least six months' experience under a licensed operator; provided that each applicant for the license shall pay to the said Board a license fee of ten dollars ($10.00). Said license to be good for a term of one year, and at the expiration of said term a renewal shall be issued by said Board upon the payment of a fee of five dollars ($5.00) for said renewal. No person granted a license under the provisions of this Act shall operate a moving picture machine after the expiration of said license or after said license shall have been suspended or revoked as herein provided, unless the said license or renewal of same shall have been granted as herein provided.

State v. Loden, 117 Md. 373.

1927, ch. 631.

691EA. Any person desiring to operate moving picture machines, without compensation, for state, religious or charitable institutions ex-