

1910, ch. 693.

691-I. The said Board of Examiners shall be paid a per diem of five dollars ($5.00) for each day actually in session, and shall pay the expense of maintaining their office out of the proceeds derived from licenses and renewals, including office rent, salary, etc.; and no money shall be paid from the State Treasury for any expense of this Board; any surplus which may exist at the end of the term of the said Board shall be returned to the Treasurer of the State; the said Board shall meet as often as necessary for the proper transaction of its business, and shall give at least five days' notice in some daily newspaper published in Baltimore City of the time and place of meeting for the purpose of examining applicants; said Board shall meet once in each month; and all licenses and renewals of licenses shall expire on the first day of May of each year.

State v. Loden, 117 Md. 373.

PAWNBROKERS.

1880, ch. 104. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 655.

692. All pawnbrokers in the City of Baltimore shall keep or cause to be kept, in a suitable book or books to be provided by them for that purpose, an accurate account showing the date of each deposit made with them in the course of their business, and of each purchase made by them in the course of their business, of any and all personal property, so described as to identify the said personal property so deposited or sold; and showing also the sum of money advanced thereon or paid therefor, the time for which any such deposit was agreed to be kept, and the name of the depositor or seller of such personal property, and his place of business or abode; and such entries shall be made by such pawnbrokers immediately upon the making of any such transaction; such book, and the personal properties so deposited or purchased, shall be subject at all times to the inspection of such agent or officer as may be designated for that purpose by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and also to the inspection of the Chief Inspector of Police for the City of Baltimore, and of such officer as he may designate for that purpose; and all pawnbrokers who shall omit, neglect or refuse to provide and keep such book, or to enter therein forthwith as aforesaid an account of all deposits made with and purchases made by them, as aforesaid, with all the particulars thereof, as hereinbefore required, or who shall enter incorrectly in such book any such account of deposit made with them, or purchases made by them, as aforesaid, or who shall refuse to exhibit any of such books and properties so deposited or purchased, if in their possession or under their control upon demand of any of the officers empowered or authorized as aforesaid to make such inspection, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars, or an imprisonment of not less than thirty days, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.
