

1912, ch. 567.

777-1. That this Act shall be construed to mean that at all times hereafter the remuneration of every retired member of the police force of Baltimore City shall be one-half the remuneration or pay of those members of the police force in active service occupying a grade or rank similar to the grade or rank occupied by the retired member at the time of his retirement, and that whenever the remuneration for any of the grades or ranks of the active members of the Police Department are increased, the remuneration of those retired members of the Police Department who held the same grade or rank at the time of their retirement that the increased pay applies to, then in that event the remuneration of the retired member of that grade or rank shall be one-half of such remuneration as the increase provides for, and no less.

See Section 777.

Pensions not based on extra pay or bonus for length of service, but on base pay only. Leitch v. Gaither, 151 Md. 167.

1916, ch. 455.

777A. The said Police Commissioner is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to include the Signal and Telephone Operators of the various Station Houses of Baltimore City, within the provisions of Section 777 of this Article, so that they may enjoy the same rights and privileges and benefits, subject to the same limitations and conditions, as are therein prescribed and conferred for the retiring of the members of the Police Force for said City of Baltimore, provided, however, that the said Signal and Telephone Operators of the several Station Houses of Baltimore City shall pay into the Special Fund the regular percentage, from the time of their appointment, with interest in addition to the regular percentage, required under this Act.

Police Pension Cases, 131 Md. 317.

1906, ch. 456.

777A1. The said Police Commissioner is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to include the Superintendent of Matrons and the Matrons of the several station-houses of Baltimore City within the provisions of Section 777 of this Article so that they may enjoy the same rights and privileges and benefits, subject to the same limitations and conditions as are therein prescribed and conferred for the retiring of the members of the police force for the said City of Baltimore; provided, however, that the said Superintendent of Matrons and the Matrons of the several station-houses of Baltimore City within the provisions of Section 777 of this Article shall pay into the Special Fund the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per annum for the next succeeding three years in addition to the regular percentage required under the special pension Act.

Police Pension Cases, 131 Md. 317.

1922, ch. 389.

777AA. The said Police Commissioner is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to include the charwomen of the several station-houses