

provide by ordinance for a Commission with full power to administer the said fund, to provide for its expenditures, to employ such officials, agents and servants as may be necessary in connection therewith, and to supervise the entire disposition of the same, so far as the exercise of such power shall not be inconsistent with the Charter of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore as the same is now constituted or as it may be hereafter amended.

841-OO. The said Commission shall have the right and power on behalf of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to acquire from time to time by gift, purchase, lease or other method of acquisition, or by condemnation, any lands or property, including franchises, easements, rights and privileges of any and every kind, which may be proper or desirable in connection with the objects and purposes of this Act, and no ordinance or ordinances shall in any case be necessary for the acceptance of any conveyance.

841PP. The Port Development Commission shall carefully study the commerce of the Port of Baltimore and the handling and movement of such commerce; and it shall from time to time report its findings and recommendations to the Mayor of Baltimore. The said Commission is hereby further authorized and empowered, with the approval of the Mayor, to petition any Federal, State or Municipal official, body or commission, whether legislative, administrative, or judicial, and, with the approval of the Mayor, to petition or intervene and participate in behalf of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore in any proceedings affecting the commerce of the Port of Baltimore.

841QQ. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to repeal, alter or affect in any manner the validity of any action heretofore taken or contract heretofore made under the authority of the said Chapter 560 of the Acts of 1920 by the Port Development Commission appointed under the authority thereof, or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore or the Board of Estimates; nor shall anything contained in this Act in anywise affect any of the stock heretofore issued under the authority of the said Act; nor shall the term of office of any member of the Port Development Commission heretofore appointed be affected by anything herein contained.

841RR. No part of the proceeds of the loan authorized by vote of the legal voters of Baltimore City on November 6th, 1928, shall be used for any of the purposes authorized by this Act but not authorized by Chapter 560 of the Acts of 1920, unless an ordinance or ordinances of the
