

ALLEGANY COUNTY.
LANDLORD AND TENANT

PROPERTY
OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND

1927, ch. 653.

379. Whenever goods, wares, chattels or merchandise shall have been levied upon under a Warrant of Distrainment by any landlord or his agent or bailiff in accordance with Article 53 of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, it shall be unlawful for the tenant or tenants in and upon said premises or any other person or persons other than the landlord distraining or his agent or bailiff, to remove any of said goods, wares, chattels or merchandise so distrained without the written consent of the said landlord, his agent or bailiff; and any such tenant or tenants, person or persons so unlawfully removing any such goods, wares, chattels or merchandise under distrainment, without such written permission as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00, or by imprisonment of not less than thirty days or more than three months or both at the discretion of the Court.

See secs. 360-366 of this Article.

1890, ch. 265.

380. No suit or action shall be maintained by any landlord, lessor or person entitled to the possession of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, situate, lying and being in Allegany County, to recover double the yearly value of such lands, tenements or hereditaments from any tenant or tenants holding over after the determination of his, her or their tenancy.

LICENSES.

1927, ch. 554, sec. 1.

381. On and after June 1, 1927, it shall be unlawful within Allegany County, Maryland, for any person, firm, association, or corporation, its servants or agents to establish, own, operate, set-up or cause to be established, owned, or operated either directly or indirectly, under trade name for the sale of any brand of goods, wares, merchandise, more than five mercantile or other stores for the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, commonly known as chain store or chain stores for the sale or retail of any goods, wares, or merchandise; any person, firm, association, or corporation, its officers, agents, consignees or servants violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor upon conviction before the Circuit Court of Allegany County and shall be fined not less than five hundred ($500.00) dollars for each and every offense, all fines imposed under this section shall be paid over to the County Commissioners of Allegany County for the use of the public school system of Allegany County.

This Act was held unconstitutional by the Circuit Court for Allegany in Equity Case No. 10922 on April 26, 1928. No appeal was taken.