

ment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or personal estate sold by him; and when it shall be necessary for him to proceed to collect the taxes placed in his hands by sales of real or personal property he shall proceed as now directed for the collection of taxes by collectors, and shall be allowed the same fee therefor as now allowed collectors, except that a notice of unpaid taxes by a constable or constables as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed a sufficient notice prior to making the levy.*

Calvert Co. v. Hellen, 72 Md. 603. Moffat v. Calvert Co., 97 Md. 270.

1890, ch. 183, sec. 2. 1898, ch. 173.

88. The person so appointed, as provided in Section 1 of Chapter 183 of the Acts of 1890,† or who shall be hereafter elected, as hereinbefore provided, before he enters upon the duties of his said office, shall take an oath before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Calvert County in form similar to that now taken by the Treasurer of Calvert County; he shall execute to the State of Maryland such bond as is now or may hereafter be required by law as the collector of State taxes, which bond shall be approved and filed in like manner as other bonds of collectors of State taxes; and he shall execute to the State of Maryland a separate bond in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, to be approved by the County Commissioners of Calvert County, with the condition that if the above bounden treasurer shall well and faithfully execute his office of Treasurer of Calvert County, and shall account for and pay to the County Commissioners aforesaid, or to their order, or as the law may direct, the several sums which he shall receive for said county, or be answerable for by law at such time and in such manner as the law shall direct, then the obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law; and said bond, when approved, shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Calvert County at the expense of the treasurer. In case of the default of the person so appointed or elected, to qualify and execute the bonds required within thirty days after the receipt of commission, or in the event of his removal from office, his death or resignation during his term of office, the Governor shall at once appoint his successor, who shall qualify and bond as aforesaid, and so continue to appoint until a treasurer qualifies, as herein provided; provided, that such new treasurer so taking the place made vacant by death, resignation or removal, shall not collect nor take charge of any of the taxes that may be in the hands of said late treasurer uncollected, and for which the bond of the said late treasurer is responsible, but such taxes shall be collected under existing laws applicable to collection of State and county taxes, when there is death or resignation.
