

purpose shall give bond in the sum of one hundred dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the County Commissioners, the condition of the bond being that the dog shall refrain from killing or worrying sheep, lambs, fowls or other domestic animals for the space of twelve months next ensuing. And if the owner of the dog declares his intention to give such a bond, the said County Commissioners, or their agents, shall allow him reasonable time in which to procure and prepare the same and to present it to them.

1908, ch. 273, sec. 8 (p. 668).

123. A person who owns or keeps a dog who has received such notice as provided for in Sections 121 and 122, and does not within twenty-four hours kill such dog or thereafter keep it on his premises or under the immediate restraint and control of some person, shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, and any person may kill such dog if it is found strolling outside of the enclosure or immediate care of the owner or keeper.

1908, ch. 273, sec. 9 (p. 668).

124. Any person may kill a dog found out of the enclosure or immediate care of the owner or keeper worrying, maiming or killing sheep, lambs, fowls or other domestic animals.

1908, ch. 273, sec. 10 (p. 668).

125. The owner or keeper of a dog, which is doing damages to sheep, lambs, fowls or other domestic animals shall be liable in an action of tort to the county, for all damages so done which the County Commissioners have ordered to be paid, as provided in this Act. The State or District Attorney may, and if so ordered by the County Commissioners, shall bring said action.

1908, ch. 273, sec. 11 (p. 668).

126. All moneys which are received by the County Treasurer under the provisions of this Act, and which is not paid out for damages in the calendar year for which it is collected, shall be expended in the respective counties under the direction of the County Commissioners as they may see fit.

1908, ch. 273, sec. 12 (p. 669).

127. A county officer who refuses or wilfully neglects to perform the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this Act relating to dogs shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, which shall be paid into the county treasury; whoever is aggrieved by such refusal or neglect may report the same forthwith to the District or State's Attorney of his county, who shall bring action.