

NORTH BEACH.

1924, ch. 107, sec. 1.

178. The inhabitants of North Beach, in Calvert County, Maryland, are hereby incorporated and created a corporate body under the name and by the style of North Beach, and by that name may sue and be sued and have and use a common seal, and have perpetual succession.

1924, ch. 107, sec. 2.

179. The boundary limits of said North Beach shall be as follows: So much as lies east of the west line of Detroit Avenue in that tract of land situate, lying and being in Calvert County in the State of Maryland, and heretofore called North Chesapeake Beach, as appeared by plat recorded among the Land Records of Calvert County aforesaid, in Liber G. W. D. No. 1, Folio 497 (and also the water abutting thereon eastward for a distance of 3,000 feet). And said town shall have and exercise full police powers within and for a distance of one thousand feet beyond the land boundaries thereof.

1924, ch. 107, sec. 3. 1929, ch. 499, sec. 3.

180. On the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, 1930, and biennially thereafter, the qualified electors of North Beach shall vote for a Mayor, treasurer and six councilmen, who shall each have the qualifications requisite for an elector of said town, and said Mayor and councilmen shall together constitute the Council of the said town; that an elector of said town shall be any citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years or over who, on the day of election and continuously for a period of ninety days prior to registration shall be the owner of at least one thousand square feet of land in North Beach, whether such real estate be held individually, jointly or as tenant by the entirety, and the husband or wife, as the case may be of such owner, or any citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years or over who is a legal voter in the State of Maryland, and who on the day of election is and for a period of one year prior to registration has been a resident of North Beach, Md.

1924, ch. 107, sec 3A.

181. On or before the fourth Saturday in April, 1924, and each election year, thereafter, the Mayor and Council shall appoint three judges of registration, who shall also be the judges of election hereinafter provided for, and one clerk, who shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council shall provide. Said judges of registration shall cause to be made a complete registration list of all persons entitled to vote at the town elections, and shall appoint the times and places for such registration, at least one of which shall be in the City of Washington, D. C., where evidences of ownership and other qualifications of electors may be submitted, and shall give public notice thereof by publication in at least one daily newspaper printed in the District of Columbia for the three
