

1890, ch. 132, sec. 29. 1892, ch. 425, sec. 29.

414. The Mayor and Councilmen may appoint a supervisor or supervisors of streets, alleys and highways of said town, and direct in what manner the same shall be kept up and repaired and may allow such supervisor such compensation for his services as they may deem a reasonable.

1890, ch. 132, sec. 30. 1892, ch. 425, sec. 30.

415. The bailiff of said town shall attend the meetings of the Mayor and Councilmen when required, and perform such services as they shall direct; shall prevent the tumultuous and irregular meetings of dissolute and disorderly persons within said town, and disperse them when assembled, by lawful means; and they shall be held amenable to such penalties as shall be prescribed by the Mayor and Councilmen.

1890, ch. 132, sec. 31. 1892, ch. 425, sec. 31. 1918, ch. 492, sec. 31.

416. The said bailiff and police officers shall have the same power and authority as constables in Allegany County for making arrests or serving any process for violation of the ordinances of the town or in the discharge of their duties as bailiff or police officers; and shall receive such salary for their services from the Mayor and Councilmen as may be, from time to time designated by said Mayor and Councilmen.

1890, ch. 132, sec. 32. 1892, ch. 425, sec. 32.

417. The Mayor and Councilmen shall annually at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, select one of the justices of the peace of said town as corporation justice, before whom, or before the Mayor, shall be taken all persons charged with violating any of the ordinances of said town, and before whom, or the Mayor, all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this act, or by any ordinance of said town, may be recovered in the name of the Mayor and Councilmen of Lonaconing as hereinbefore provided, and shall be paid to the Mayor and Councilmen for the use of said town.*

418. The said corporation shall not use any device, token, note or certificate of evidence of debt to be used as currency, and at no time shall said Mayor and Councilmen obligate the said town in any amount in excess of more than five thousand dollars above the amount assessed as taxes upon the real and personal property of said town, and shall not obligate said town in excess of the amount of taxes as herein specified,

*The title and enacting clause of ch. 425, 1892, indicate that sec. 33 of ch. 132, 1890, was to be repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, but it is not included in the Act itself. The section as it was enacted by ch. 132, 1890, reads as follows: The Mayor and Councilmen of the Town of Lonaconing shall have power to require license from all circuses, menageries, theatrical and other exhibitions for gain exhibiting in said town; they shall have power to require license from the owners and keepers of hacks, carts, wagons, drays and every description of wheel vehicle and carriage kept for hire in said town, also from auctions, stores, hawkers and peddlers.
