

OUT PENSIONERS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 106. 1860, Art. 5, sec. 51. 1890, ch. 50.

223. The County Commissioners may keep as many out pensioners, and allow them such pensions as they may think proper, not exceeding twenty dollars in any one case, except in such cases of extreme poverty and distress, and inability to labor, when they may in their discretion, allow a pension of forty dollars, and no out pensioners shall be kept at the expense of the county at a sum exceeding twenty dollars, unless the County Commissioners are advised in writing so to do by taxpayers, residents of the district of the applicant, whose aggregate sum of assessable property, as appears by the assessment books of the county exceeds the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and no out pensioner whatever shall be kept at the expense of the county, unless the said Commissioners are advised in writing so to do by taxpayers, residents of the district of the applicant, whose aggregate sum of assessable property, as appears by the assessment books of the county to exceed in value the sum of ten thousand dollars, and no levy whatever shall be made for out pensioners, and no sum or sums paid them after the passage of this act, unless the provisions hereof are complied with, and the requirements hereof shall apply to each and every levy, and the recommendations herein required shall be preserved in the office of said Commissioners.*

OYSTERS. †

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 99. 1870, ch. 188.

224. It shall be unlawful for any person to catch oysters for sale in the waters of Saint Leonard's Creek, Island Creek and Battle Creek, in Calvert County, except persons who have imbedded or planted, or who may hereafter imbed or plant oysters in said waters.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 100. 1870, ch. 188.

225. On information given under oath, of any violation of the preceding section, to any justice of the peace of Calvert County, he shall forthwith issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable or military officer, requiring either of them to whom it may be directed, to summon the posse comitatus, if necessary, and proceed forthwith to arrest the parties alleged to have been engaged in violating said section, and to seize and take possession of any canoe, boat or vessel, together with all their tackle and apparel, and any article on said boat at the time belonging to said parties, and used by them in such violation.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 101. 1870, ch. 188.

226. The sheriff, constable or military officer making such arrest shall forthwith bring the offenders before some justice of the peace of the county

*The title of ch. 50, 1890, provides for repeal of the section, but the Act itself repeals and re-enacts the section.

†See Annotated Code of Md., Art. 72.