

diligently and faithfully without prejudice, partiality or favor perform the duties of their respective offices, and shall file a certificate thereof signed by the justice of the peace before whom said oath was taken among the records of the corporation.

1892, ch. 610, sec. 8.

289. The clerk, bailiff and any officer of said corporation who shall hold or have charge of the moneys thereof shall give bond to the Commissioners in such penalties, and with such sureties as said Commissioners may require conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective offices.

1892, ch. 610, sec. 9.

290. The commissioners shall receive all returns of election and determine all questions arising thereon but any person feeling himself aggrieved by such decisions may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court for Calvert County which court shall hear and determine such appeal and decide who shall pay the cost thereof.

1892, ch. 610, sec. 10.

291. The commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law as they may deem beneficial to the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys, straighten, grade and pave the same, remove nuisances and obstructions therefrom, restrain all disorders and disturbances, prevent all congregations of disorderly persons in public places, apprehend and fine all tramps and vagabonds, impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of their ordinances, and commit all offenders to the county jail until the same be paid with costs; they may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town and remove all nuisances from, or prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof; and as often as they may deem advisable may cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within said town, by the bailiff of said town, which assessment shall not exceed the assessments for State and county purposes, and they may levy a tax thereon not exceeding ten cents on the hundred dollars of assessable property, and provided that any person who feels aggrieved by such assessment may appeal therefrom to said Commissioners at their first meeting after such assessment, who shall hear and determine said appeal and shall increase or abate such assessment as they may deem just, and whenever the said levy is so made the said Commissioners shall make an alphabetical list of the persons who owe such taxes with the respective amounts so due, and place them in the hands of the bailiff to collect.

1892, ch. 610, sec. 11.

292. The bailiff shall after receipt of said tax list within ten days render to each person named therein a tax bill showing the amount due
