

1892, ch. 610, sec. 16.

297. The County Commissioners, justices of the peace, constables, sheriffs and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted.

1892, ch. 610, sec. 17.

298. Neglect or non-use shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 126. 1888, ch. 68. 1894, ch. 354. 1912, ch. 103.

299. The State's Attorney for Calvert County shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, and no more, which shall be annually levied by the County Commissioners of Calvert County to the use of the State's Attorney, for the performance of the duties which are now or may be hereafter required by him by law, to be paid for by the County Commissioners of Calvert County.*

SWINE IN LOWER MARLBOROUGH.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 127. 1860, Art. 5, sec. 73.

300. No swine belonging to the inhabitants of Lower Marlborough, in Calvert County, shall be suffered to go at large in said town; and if any person shall find any such swine going at large in said town, he may kill the same.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 128. 1860, Art. 5, sec. 74.

301. If any person shall be sued for killing any such swine going at large, he may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence.

TAXES.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 129. 1860, Art. 5, sec. 75.

302. Where there is no personal property on the land lying in Calvert County belonging to any person not residing therein, for the payment of taxes, the collector or deputy collector may sell a sufficient quantity of timber suitable for cord wood or fence rails, in one parcel, growing on the same acre or contiguous acres of the land, to pay such taxes.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 5, sec. 130. 1860, Art. 5, sec. 76.

303. The collector or deputy collector, before making such sale, shall give notice in some newspaper published in the District of Columbia, and in the City of Baltimore, and by advertisement set up at three of the most public places in the neighborhood adjoining the lands on which the taxes are due, of the time and place of sale; and at the time of making the
